

THE SOVEREIGN LODGE

AN IMPORTANT SESSION HELD DURING THE MORNING.

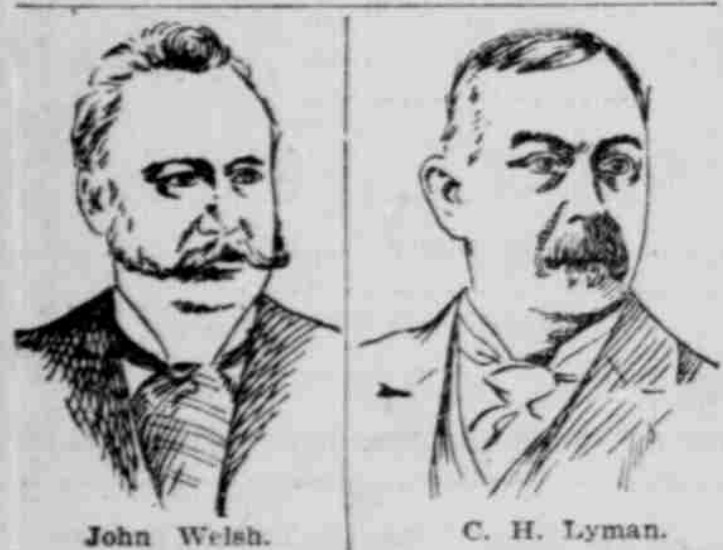

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows decides to meet at Des Moines, Ia., next year.

MEMORIAL SERVICE TO-DAY

IT WILL BE HELD IN STATEHOUSE, AND PUBLIC INVITED.

After This Service the Sovereign Lodge Will Adjourn Business for the Day—Other Matters.

With a gentility quite characteristic of an organization of ancient and honorable lineage the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows did not wait until the closing day of its annual session to adopt, amid the hurry and bustle incident to such a day, the usual resolution of thanks for its entertainment, but yesterday, the third day of the session, a resolution breathing the spirit of true civility was introduced and adopted unanimously, directing the appointment of a committee to prepare appropriate expression of the gratitude of the grand body for the hospitable manner in which it has been received and entertained. The resolutions to be drafted by this committee will give thanks to the citizens of Indianapolis, to the various departments of the city government, and to all other agencies that have been instrumental in making the sojourn of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows in Indiana's capital comfortable and pleasant. Grand Sire Cable immediately announced the personnel of the committee, as follows: Grand Representative, Norris of Nebraska, Semmes of Alabama, Guthrie of New York, Cox of Kentucky, Montague of Virginia, Perkins of Rhode Island, Watson of California, Murray of the Maritime Provinces, and Carbis of Utah. The resolutions are expected to be presented to the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its meeting to-morrow morning.

CONSTITUTION AMENDED.

By a vote of 135 to 41, which was only three votes more than the three-fourths required, the constitution was amended so as to permit any State Grand Lodge to admit as members men of mixed white and Indian blood. The resolution which suggested this action was proposed by the representative from the Territory of Oklahoma, who is heartily in favor of the innovation. Many of the delegates, however, are half-breed Indians and they have been at yesterday's meeting, agreed to vote for the amendment. It was stated at yesterday's meeting, agreed to vote for the amendment. It was stated at yesterday's meeting, agreed to vote for the amendment.

When the vote for the location of next year's meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge was taken, the resolution was sprung by the delegation from Baltimore, Md., proposing that city as the place to hold the meeting. The understanding heretofore has been that Des Moines, Ia., and Eureka Springs, Ark., were the only contestants for this honor. Although Baltimore entered late in the race, it secured 85 votes to 41 for Eureka Springs, which has been in the fight from the beginning of the present meeting. Des Moines, Ia., however, captured the "plum" with 135 votes.

A number of other constitutional amendments were proposed, but the Grand Lodge voted to postpone them indefinitely, which meant practically their death. Among them was a provision for biennial instead of annual sessions of the grand body. Another sought to make membership of the grand degree a requisite for appointment as grand representative. Grand representatives are presently needed only to be members of the subordinate lodge, the Rebekah, which is favored an amendment to limit the terms of grand representatives to one instead of two years. Still another of the slaughtered amendments sought to cut down the mileage of grand representatives to 8 cents instead of 10 for points east and 12 cents for points west of the western line of Nebraska. The fixing of the latter rates of mileage was announced exclusively in Tuesday's Journal.

DECORATIONS OF HONOR.

Yesterday was a day for conferring decorations of honor. Resolutions were introduced and adopted providing for conferring the decoration and grand decorations of chivalry upon the following: General M. Newman, Colonel John T. Temple, Colonel N. F. Leroy and Herbert W. Dunton, all of the department of Iowa; Lieutenant Colonel Harry J. Hall, Major J. S. Batroff, W. A. Huntington, Captain C. McCullough and W. M. Mumma, of Pennsylvania; J. J. Ferguson, of Michigan; Lieutenant Colonel William L. Ryan and Major Leonard Walther, of Ohio, and W. W. Griffin, of Indiana. Upon the special recommendation of Grand Sire Cable decorations were conferred upon the following: Lieutenant Colonel Philip H. Gilbert, who served as an aide-de-camp on the staff of the grand sire; Major H. J. Eckstein, an aide-de-camp of the staff of the department commander of Pennsylvania, and Lieutenant Henry C. Mendel, of Pennsylvania. All of the foregoing belong to the jurisdiction of Pennsylvania. Upon resolution, the addresses delivered at the welcoming meeting in English's Opera House last Monday morning, complete reports of what appeared only in Tuesday's Journal, were ordered printed in the appendix of the journal of proceedings of this week's meeting.

A RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

A resolution was also adopted instructing the Grand Encampment to forward the journal of proceedings heretofore to the presidents of Rebekah assemblies and also to the department commanders. Heretofore, these branches of the order have been prevented by law from receiving these journals.

The resolution providing that the third or scarlet degree shall be the qualification for admission to the Rebekahs Militant branch of the order and doing away with the necessity for passing through the encampment branch was also introduced, as forecasted in the Journal, and was referred to the appropriate committee for a report which will probably be submitted to-morrow.

CONFERRING OF DEGREES.

The I. O. O. F. lodges again took up degree work last night, and every meeting was well attended. At 9 p. m. the initiation degree was given by the Mount Pleasant (Mich.) Lodge, and the first degree was conferred on the Bangor (Mich.) Lodge. The West Carrollton (O.) Lodge conferred the second degree, and the third degree was conferred by the Germantown (O.) Lodge. At the Red Men's Hall the P. M. degree was given by the Pioneer Canton (No. 3) Lodge, from Des Moines, Ia., before a big audience. This lodge is competing for the two-hundred-dollar prize. The judges are General Frost, of Chicago, Colonel Hughes, of Baltimore, and Colonel Norman, of Denver.

E. S. Conway's Appointment.

E. S. Conway, a prominent member of the Illinois delegation to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, received yesterday a letter from John M. Glenn, secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, announcing his appointment as a member of that body. Conway is expected to attend the funeral of the late President McKinley in Canton, O., to-day. The City Council of Chicago also invited Mr. Conway to accompany its committee to Canton, but he was obliged to decline both invitations on account of his duties as a member of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Picnic at Germania Park.

The picnic arranged by Germania Lodge, No. 12, and Mount Lodge, No. 331, I. O. O. F., yesterday, at Germania Park, was not attended as largely as was expected on account of the cold weather. Throughout the day members of the two lodges and the Rebekahs were in the park, but they did not remain long. Reiser's Orchestra, under the direction of the orchestra leader, was playing during the afternoon. Owing to the lack of attendance but few couples were sufficiently to partake of the opportunity for dancing.

THE GREENSBURG HOME.

Visitors Much Pleased with the Institution—A Misunderstanding.

GREENSBURG, Ind., Sept. 18.—A delegation of members of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and the Rebekah assemblies came down from Indianapolis to-day to visit the I. O. O. F. home. The first train arrived at 8:45 and did not bring down as many people as was expected. The noon train brought in a good delegation and the visitors were driven to the home one mile east of the city, where they spent about two hours in going through the departments of that magnificent institution. The visitors were much pleased with the home and its surroundings. Members of the Grand Lodges of Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, New York and Minnesota were in the delegation. None of the Sovereign Grand Lodge officers were here. Senator C. C. Binkley, of Richmond, on the first train to assist in the installation of the new officers. Mrs. Hogate, of Danville, and Mrs. Wray, of Shelbyville, members of the home committee, came in on the noon train and were soon busy showing the visitors through the home. Mr. Binkley said the committee found everything moving along nicely and the Rebekahs were much pleased with the management of the institution. The home has about sixty inmates, old persons and children. The inmates are dressed, have plenty to eat and are kept in a clean and neat. The inmates, as a rule, are in good order and are doing things. Mrs. Mary Lewis, the matron, is very popular with the inmates and with the citizens of this place. Some surprise was expressed by the visitors that the Rebekahs were not in the home. Mr. Binkley said that the Rebekahs were not in the home because they were not notified of the visit. He said that the Rebekahs were not in the home because they were not notified of the visit. He said that the Rebekahs were not in the home because they were not notified of the visit.

TEN THOUSAND VISITORS.

That Number Are Supposed to Have Come to the City.

The downtown streets gave little evidence yesterday of the crowd which was thought to have been in the city. There were a large number of special trains in the morning and many who came Tuesday remained here. The twelve special outgoing trains of Tuesday night were not nearly so well filled as the same trains coming in. At no time yesterday was there anything like the Tuesday crush at the Union Station. Railway men yesterday put the trains out at 10:00. There were only three special outgoing trains last night, and these were not crowded. The streets were filled with people, but they were so distributed that there was no crowding. To-day there will be several special trains and regular trains will carry extra coaches. A large number of visitors are expected to-day than came yesterday. The rush, except that of those homeward bound, is thought to be over.

Nearly Bled to Death.

Frank Wonders, of 1021 Hestbrook street, while bottling beer at the Metzger plant on Maryland street, cut a deep gash in his wrist, severing a radial artery, and was for a time in danger of bleeding to death. He was hurried to the City Dispensary, where the gash was sewed up by Dr. Rose. The injury was caused by the breaking of a bottle.

A Petition in Bankruptcy.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday morning in the Federal Court by George C. Campbell, Dobbin Bros., Elmer E. Nichols Company and Souther & Frank, creditors of Leroy Daugherty and Frank C. Ferguson, manufacturers of candy at Bedford, Ind. The name of their concern was the Bedford Candy Company.

PAST OFFICERS MEET

AN INTERESTING MEETING HELD AT GRAND LODGE HALL.

It Was in the Nature of a Reunion of Past Grand Representatives of the Order.

AN EVENING OF REMINISCENCE

JOHN L. NOLEN, OF TENNESSEE, HEARD TO ADVANTAGE.

A Reception at the Occidental Hotel—Various Entertainments for Odd Fellows.

Indiana I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge Hall was comfortably filled last night at the reunion of past grand representatives, to which the public was invited. There were but few changes in the programme as at first published. The place of Past Grand Sire Alfred S. Pinkerton, of Massachusetts, was taken by Dr. C. L. Campbell, past grand representative, of London, Ont., and George F. Goodwin, the grand sire-elect, delivered an address in the nature of a reminiscence of the past. He also spoke of the good work done by the order and the benefits will be far-reaching. The address was well received by the evening—Mr. Charles E. Mendell and Mrs. F. Foster Reynolds were enthusiastically encouraged.

The first address was by Grand Representative A. J. Cushing, of Rhode Island. Mr. Cushing spoke of the order and the benefits will be far-reaching. The address was well received by the evening—Mr. Charles E. Mendell and Mrs. F. Foster Reynolds were enthusiastically encouraged.

RECEPTION OF DETROIT LODGES.

It Is Given at Occidental Hotel in Honor of Grand Sire Cable.

The members of the Detroit lodges, I. O. O. F., tendered Grand Sire Cable a reception last night at the Occidental Hotel. It was in every way a fitting token of respect to the chief officer. Immediately after dinner the large dining room of the hotel and the parlors and rotunda were converted into a garden of potted plants. Around the walls and ceilings of the rooms were draped American flags tied with crepe. Friendly feeling among the members of the order's colors—red, white, purple and green. Prior to the commencement of the regular programme a number of small tables were placed in the rotunda, where little knots of Odd Fellows and their ladies indulged in card-playing. In one corner of the dining room and behind the bank of ferns and palms were seated the members of Montali Bros' Orchestra. They gave popular airs during the evening. At 9 o'clock Grand Sire Cable, accompanied by his staff, resplendent in their gay uniforms, made their entrance to the main hall, dressed in these uniforms. Department Commanders Gen. J. C. Whitaker, Ohio; Gen. E. C. Dean, Pennsylvania; Gen. E. L. Seckman, Illinois; Gen. M. A. Raney, Iowa; Gen. E. C. Emerson, Massachusetts, and General Bodine, Indiana. Each department commander was accompanied by his respective staff officers. Grand Sire Cable was introduced by Mr. Walker, of Detroit. He made a short speech, in which he welcomed the members from Michigan on their elaborate work in arranging for the reception. He also spoke of the good work done by the members from the "Canton City of the West" and the "Canton City of the East" in Odd Fellow circles. Grand Sire Cable further spoke of the urgent need now for this country for fraternal societies. He said that the I. O. O. F. was a fraternal society and a place of refuge for the weary traveler. He also said that the I. O. O. F. was a place of refuge for the weary traveler. He also said that the I. O. O. F. was a place of refuge for the weary traveler.

Entertainment at Courthouse.

Cut a Horse's Throat.

The police were yesterday making inquiries and trying to locate some person who had caused the death of a horse by cutting its throat Tuesday night. The animal belonged to Henry Blackwell, of 825 Park avenue, and had been recently purchased from John Higgins, of 825 North Rural street. The horse died from loss of blood. Higgins reported also to the police that the horse had been broken open his barn and destroyed the top cover of his buggy by cutting it with a knife.

Obscene Pictures Displayed.

Superintendent Quigley sent Detectives Holtz and Morgan yesterday through the places on South Illinois street, where pictures of a higher class than the usual ones are exhibited in slot machines. A number of complaints were made that the proprietors were taking liberties and displaying obscene pictures. As a result of the search the pictures were removed. A 129 South Illinois street and Fred Warner, alias Williams were arrested.

MR. SOUSA AND HIS BAND

FAMOUS BANDMASTER HAS ARRANGED FOR SACRED CONCERT.

Yesterday's Two Concerts Enjoyed by a Big Audience Despite Coldness of the Weather.

Now come Mr. Sousa and his band to take a place among the other first-prize features of the state fair. They gave concerts at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and at 8 o'clock last night. The concert this afternoon will begin promptly at 1 o'clock and will consist solely of sacred music in honor of the dead President, who was a friend of Mr. Sousa. The bandmaster arranged the programme, and the idea of a memorial concert at the time of the funeral at Canton was his. He made a special appeal to the State Board of Agriculture and it heartily approved the plan. The programme will be as follows:

Funeral dirge, "The Honored Dead".....Sousa

Cornet solo, "Stabat Mater".....Rosini

"Pilgrims' Chorus" from "Tannhauser".....Wagner

Obligato by Simonetta.....Pryor

Trombone solo, "The Patriot".....Pryor

Religious fantasia, "Song of Grace".....Sousa

and Songs of Glory.....Sousa

Including the famous "March of the Martyrs".....Sousa

and "Nearer, my God, to Thee".....Sousa

Cornet solo, "My Country 'Tis of Thee".....Rogers

Paraphrase, "My Country 'Tis of Thee".....Verdi

"Funeral March".....Chopin

National air, "The Star-spangled Banner".....Chopin

The last of the Sousa concerts will be given to-night, and it is to be hoped that the weather will be more kindly than it was yesterday, when some musicians after holding their metal instruments had to rub the band pavilion to prevent stiffness. The cold breeze blew briskly across the band's pavilion and the grand stand, and this was a very trying moment for the musicians. Half way through the afternoon concert the canopy was rolled up and the musicians welcomed the few warm rays that the sun permitted to pass through to earth. The grand stand began to fill soon after noon and the great crowd shared the cold. Last night's audience was overcast. When Mr. Sousa came up in the afternoon the musicians were more than ready to receive him. He was greeted by a large number of his admirers and the band played a number of his most popular pieces. The audience was very much pleased with the performance. The band played a number of his most popular pieces. The audience was very much pleased with the performance.

Wool

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

The process of digestion is simply explained. In the mouth, food is masticated and mixed with saliva containing a digestant called ptyalin. In the stomach, it is acted upon by gastric juice containing pepsin, which digests albuminous foods. In the intestines, pancreatin is added to digest fats and starches.

Indigestion always indicates an insufficient amount of one or all of these digestants. At first thought it seems proper to abstain from foods not easily digested; but reflection shows us that while this affords relief by giving the weakened organs less to do, it only makes them weaker by giving them less nourishment. If you suffer from indigestion, the only right thing to do is to eat a generous variety of food and digest it by using such a preparation as KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE, which contains all the known digestants, and completely digests what you eat.

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1.00 bottle contains 54 times the 50c. size.
